

Deakin University Building P News Room, Burwood

arete Australia is proud to announce the successful completion of a major refurbishment project at Deakin University's Burwood campus. Our team was awarded the Lump Sum contract to transform Building P into a state-of-the-art facility designed to enhance the learning experience and foster creativity among students and staff.

This project encompassed specialised facilities across three levels:

- Neutral Printing Room: Features calibrated lighting boxes and magnetic boards for precise photo editing and printing.
- News Room: Equipped with high-end designer furniture and integrated e-solutions, meeting specific acoustic requirements for news recording.
- Teaching Spaces: Incorporating cutting-edge AV technology to enhance learning experiences.
- Green Room: Supporting multimedia production activities.

This project showcases arete Australia's expertise in creating tailored educational environments that merge functionality with advanced technology.
