RMIT Design Hub, Melbourne

arete Australia led a transformative project for RMIT University, revitalizing the School of Architecture's campus within the prestigious Design Hub Building 100.

This comprehensive renovation encompassed ten floors, blending the expertise of three architectural firms to create a dynamic learning environment. The reimagined space features innovative teaching areas, staff facilities, and specialized workshops, including a cutting-edge robotics lab.

Throughout the project, arete skillfully balanced functionality with design integrity, crafting a space that both serves and inspires the next generation of architects.
